

EAST AND WEST TO MEET AT BELLEAIR

H. K. Kerr and George R. Balch
Lead Golf Teams.

STAR "PROS" MATCHED

Robertson and Hutchinson to
Play for $1,000 a Side.

Special Dispatch to THE SUN AND NEW YORK
HERALD.

BELLEAIR HEIGHTS, Fla., Feb. 7.—At the present moment Belleair can offer golf players and enthusiasts more in the way of entertainment than any resort in the country. An event that is bound to attract attention from one end of the United States to the other is the coming team match between the East and the West. This will be the first time that such a match has ever been played, but from the interest shown so far it will not be the last time, and it is safe to say that golfers here can look forward to this event each year.

Hamilton K. Kerr of New York will lead the Eastern forces into battle, and George R. Balch, formerly president of the Western Golf Association, will head the Western players. At the present time the teams look to be about evenly matched with plenty of high class talent on each side. The first three Western players will be Joseph Schottman, Detroit; Ellsworth Augustus of Cleveland, and DeWitt Balch of Cincinnati, and they will be backed up by W. A. Alexander, the Chicago veteran; George Balch, Cincinnati, and Arthur Stickney of St. Louis. But this is not all. There are many other Western players to swell the list. At least thirty from each section will line up.

"Ham" Kerr to Lead East.

Ham Kerr has a strong agreement to choose from. It is possible that Henry J. Topping of Greenwich will head the list, and Kerr himself should fit in nicely in second place; but the first three positions on both teams are about equal. Other players from the East who will be in line are Wistar Harvey, Philadelphia; Dr. C. H. Gardner, Providence; I. S. Robeson, Rochester; T. A. Ashley, Boston; William Whitmore, Hartford; A. J. Mendes, New York; A. J. Carty, Philadelphia; R. S. Porter, New York; Clarence Hobart, New York, and Cortland Van Clief of Buffalo also will find a position at the top as well as his father, W. S. Van Clief of Richmond county.

On Sunday afternoon Jack Hutchinson of Glen View, Chicago, will play against Dave Robertson of the Pittsburgh Country Club for a side bet of $1,000. There should be one of the largest galleries on hand that ever followed a golf match in this neck of the woods, and there seems to be a great difference of opinion as to which is the better man. All of this has brought about numerous wagers of every amount from ten cents to a thousand dollars. Robertson is the idol of the Belleair enthusiasts, who declare that any human being who can play twelve rounds over the two difficult courses here with an average of 70 is good enough to carry their money. Hutchinson arrived on Thursday and began practicing immediately. His first round was 79, but after the rough edges had been worn off he did much better. Belleair is nothing new to Jack, who has been playing here for years during the winter months. He is a grand match player and there will be a big surprise in store for the Chicago folks if he should fail to "bring home the bacon."

Women Enjoying the Warm Days.

The women golfers are enjoying these warm days at Belleair. The more the wind howls and whistles in the North the milder and warmer it seems to grow here. The last women's tournament ended on Thursday with a victory for Mrs. G. Henry Stetson of Philadelphia, who won after being 3 down at the eleventh hole. Mrs. Stetson upset the old theory that a winner of the medal round was sure to lose the tournament. Her nearest rival in the qualifying round was Mrs. Fox, whom she defeated in the final.

Mrs. Fox was formerly Philadelphia champion and is playing some very fine golf here now. Seldom does it require her more than 90 to make the round. Poor putting caused her to lose the game on Thursday.

W. A. Alexander, the veteran winner of the last tournament here, swept aside youngsters with golf reputations as if they were nothing to worry about. He celebrated the event with a dinner at which George Ade acted as toastmaster. George referred to him as "Alexander the Great." Ade explained how exceedingly difficult it is to get away with one after dinner speech in these days and remarked that one could not get any "golden sunsets out of grape juice."

BID FOR TITLE TOURNEY.

Two Clubs Want Florida Championship.

Special Dispatch to THE SUN AND NEW YORK
HERALD.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Feb. 7.—Both St. Petersburg Country Club and the Rocky Point Club are bidding for the annual Florida State golf championship, soon to be awarded by the executive committee of the association. Charles E. Ball, the president, states he will be able to announce the lucky club this month, and the tournament will be played early in April.

The Bradenton Country Club is receiving entries at a promising rate for the land of Manatee championship, to be held over its links late this month. It is the amateur classic each winter south of Tampa.

WILLIAMS NOT TO GO SOUTH.

Baseball Team's Trip to Dixie Not to Be Revived.

Special Dispatch to THE SUN AND NEW YORK
HERALD.

WILLIAMSTOWN, Feb. 7.—No Southern trip will be taken by the Williams baseball nine this spring. The schedule has not been announced as yet, but the athletic authorities say that no faint to Dixieland will be included during the Easter recess as was occasionally the case in pre-war days.

Williams hockey players are privileged to perform on a new rink this winter. The old one on Western Field has been discarded by the varsity seven, which now holds forth on the spacious skating surface installed on Cole Field.

HOLES OUT TEE SHOT.

A. J. Northwood Honor Man at Palm Beach.

Special Dispatch to THE SUN AND NEW YORK
HERALD.

PALM BEACH, Fla., Feb. 7.—To E. J. Northwood of New York has fallen the distinction of being the first man to hole out in one here this year. In a round on Wednesday he ran down a lucky tee shot on the fourth, a bogie three hole.

A young English officer touring the country in 1826 said the women of Baltimore were "the most beautiful females in the world."
